

Cambridge 100

Subject: Meeting with KMSZAL, 11 October 1952

1. General Approach: Objective interest in B. R. resistance during World War II. This interest results from possibility resistance in B. R. during coming war, i.e., if resistance has certain aspirations, U. S. (or U. N.) must recognize them if G/W activities are to succeed.
2. Strive for following:
  - a. Establish rapport with high-ranking member ENR - good for future exploitation.
  - b. Learn about B.R. resistance in World War II.
    1. History
    2. Motivations
    3. Extent (plus extent German collaboration)
  - c. His part in World War II, particularly 1941-45.
  - d. His assessment of present situation in B.R.
  - e. His assessment of B. R. resistance during World War II.
  - f. Picture of B. R. emigration: Where, how much, etc.
  - g. His contacts with emigration.
  - h. ENR activities, leaders, locations.
3. Commitments:
  - a. Give post office box address for any interesting material on the emigration - etc., which he may wish to transmit to "American government circles".
  - b. Arrange with Contacts for transmittal of any materials which he may consider highly classified.
  - c. For establishment future bona fides with "interested government officials".
    1. He will be given a one dollar bill bearing the serial number V 83075995 F.
    2. If, in the future, any individual comes to him personally or phones him, he will say: "I am a representative of the Acme Insurance Co. Are you the holder of policy no. V 83075995 F"?

NAZI WAR CRIMES DISCLOSURE ACT

Declassified and Approved for Release
by the Central Intelligence Agency
Date: 2005

will be either the next

3. KMSZAL will then produce this particular bill and the government representative, to show his bona fides, will produce a bill of the same serial but ~~at the same time~~ the last number being higher or next lower, i.e., last three figures will be 996 or 994.

W